Alvanita Baca, wife of Solomon Baca of Hillsboro and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Abel Baca, died on Tuesday morning after a lingering illness. She was 21 years of age and is survived by a husband and two small children. Her funeral services were conducted by Rev. Manuel Flores.

LUNA COUNTY.

Mrs. A. M. Dalrymple, mother of Mrs. J. P. Byron, died at her residence at Deming, of which town she had been a resident the past 21 years. Mrs. Dalrymple was a native of Niagara Falls, New York, where she was born in 1842.

Samuel Underwood of the Antelope Ranch met with a painful accident last week. He was leading a wild horse while on horseback and was thrown by the vicious beast pulling back. He sustained severe injuries which are confining him to his cot.

RIO ARriba COUNTY.

According to the Antonio, Colorado, Ledger, Dr. R. W. Schuessler while exploring the Puye and Shufline cliff dwellings a little less than 30 miles northwest of Santa Fe, made a peculiar discovery last week. The Ledger says: "He noticed a spot in the wall of different color than that of the tufa around it and investigated. With his pocket knife he dug into the soft stone and discovered a hole five inches in diameter and twelve inches deep, partly filled with mud in which was imbedded a stick on which was mounted a face of obsidian that looked like a doll's head. In the same hole with the doll was a small but highly polished turquoise. Dr. Schuessler investigated further. He found another hole similar in character, in which there also was a doll and a turquoise. After further search two more of those sealed openings were found, each of which contained a doll and a turquoise. One of these holes contained a piece of petrified resin in which tooth marks indicated that it had been used much as the chewing gum of today is used. Under pressure from the fingers the resin powdered into dust. The probabilities are that the doll heads were idols but the significance of burying them in the mesa walls and the presence of the turquoise, are of course, inexplicable."
